HE HEROIC FIGHT OF NEGBA INSPIRED THE ENTIRE YISHUV AND ENABLED OUR ARMY TO PREPARE A COUNTER-ATTACK WHICH DROVE THE ENEMY FROM THE ENTIRE NEGEV. NEGBA IS NOT ONLY THE FORCE THAT STOPPED THE ENEMY'S ADVANCE BUT IT BECAME A SPRING BOARD FOR FUTURE OPERATIONS THAT CLEARED THE EGYPTIANS FROM OUR SOIL"

Dear Customer:

Enclosed you will find the prices realized from our Marjorie Rapoport Israel-Judaic auction sale which was held on April 27, 1977. For those of you who had the opportunity to attend I think you'll agree it was another mile stone in the auction record of NASCA. Record prices were achieved on many lots with strong indication that the Israel market has rebounded substantially from its 1976 low level.

OUR FALL 1977 SALE IS IN THE WORKS

Yes - we will have another sale in the Fall of 1977 (probably November) and already consignments are coming in. We have an excellent selection of Judaic spice boxes as well as many beautiful Israel and Judaic pieces. Your collection can be included in this sale. We eagerly solicit your consignments and would welcome the opportunity to discuss the proper disposition of your Israel and Judaic material in this sale. Additionally we will also have sales of United States currency, coins, and an excellent selection of foreign material from the Olga Raymond (Wayte Raymond's widow) estate.

We sincerely request that you call us collect so we may discuss this. Our commission rates on Israel and Judaic material should be to your liking.

Kindest regards,

Herbert Melnick
Executive Director

HM:mt
P. S. We will of course have a table at the upcoming A.N.A. Convention in Atlanta but that will be too late to submit material for our Fall sale.

178 1964. Bank of Israel. 30mm. Silver (492). (Photo) ——

At last the true story can be told. After confering with Arnold Kagan we have learned that in fact all of the CM-13 presentation medals were struck in Silver. It has been commonly believed that most of the examples were struck in Cupro-Nickel. Mr. Kagan advised us that this was not the case. The present example carries a minute test mark on the rev. in the four o clock position which was made in order to determine the metallic content of the particular piece. In any event a very scarce and desirable issue.

ITS WEIGHT OF 107 GRAMS AS OPPOSED TO THE NORMAL SILVERPLATED ISSUE WEIGHT OF 97 GRAMS CLEARLY INDICATES THAT IT WAS IN FACT STRUCK IN SILVER AND CERTAINLY A NUMISMATIC TREASURE. It is the first known - the first seen - the first ever to be placed at public sale. In 1976 the Israel Numismatic Society of New York commemorated its own 10th anniversary and the Bicentennial of the United States by commissioning the Hamilton Mint to strike this extraordinary set. A five medal set (excluding the gold), was struck with a mintage of 72. The six piece set including the gold medal was struck with a mintage of 28 honoring Israel's 28th anniversary.
This special six piece set, the obv. of which was designed by local New York sculptor Nathan Sobel, has never before been offered for public auction sale. It represents another unique opportunity in Israel numismatics and affords the collector an additional chance to continue to add to his/her collection of individually produced Israel Numismatic Society medals.

PALESTINE - ISRAEL COINAGE

MILS - PRUTA'S - AGOROTS

HISTORIC 1927 20 MILS - BRONZE STRIKE

266 1927. 20 Mils. XF/AU. STRUCK IN BRONZE rarer than the normal issue of copper-nickel. ($250.-Up)
A most unusual specimen. Our weight tests indicate that it clearly is of the same weight of the normal 1942 and 1944 Bronze 20 Mils specimens. Genuine in every respect. An obvious trial or pattern strike. In any event excessively rare and presently unique as far as we know.

POSSIBLE PROOF

267 1941. 10 Mils. BU and Possibly Proof. ($100.-Up)
This spectacular coin has all the trappings of a Proof coin. The devices are sharp and square and it has the characteristic matte patina of the proof. Sold as a superb BU, it should bring a record price.

MATTE FINISH 1948 ISSUE

268 1948. 25 Mils. XF. What makes this coin most unusual is its matte-sandblast finish surface. One could conjecture that this was perhaps a trial specimen although no proof of that exists. In any event a most interesting and unusual example of a scarce issue in its own right.——

269 1948. 25 Mils. XF/AU. A very high grade and scarce example of the first coin of the State of Israel. ($200.-Up)

SCARCE 1948 UNIFACE DIE TRIAL IN ALUMINUM

271 1948. 25 Mils. Extremely Fine. ($200.-Up)
A very scarce and unusual issue. The original testing of the dies was accomplished by striking the obv. die on an aluminum planchet. Although these coins never saw circulation these issues are normally graded because the pieces were struck on scrap metal and the planchet shows the normal abrasions and scrtaches. Extremely rare and absolutely authentic.

JUDAICA PAPER

EXTREMELY RARE 1789

"JEWISH BODY TAX" (LEIBZOLL)

427 January 1789. Germany. Jewish Body Tax Certificate. Excessively rare. The first we have seen or heard of. ($350.-Up)

We learned from the Encyclopedia Judaica (Volume X, page 1588), "Leibzoll (Ger; "body tax"), a special tax levied on Jews in Europe . . . it was first levied by the three landgraves of Thuringia in 1368 and became more common after the major explusions of the 15th and 16th centuries. Principalities which excluded Jews issued, for a fee, a ticket of passage for limited sojourn which guaranteed their safety, enabling the authorities to control their coming and going, and with also a source of income. The practice predominated throughout Europe and was continued into the 19th century in most all German states.

Excessively rare. The first we have seen or heard of. Undoubtedly destined for the finest collection of Judaica

EXTREMELY RARE 1840 KETUBBAH

428 1840. Ketubbah. 27 inches by 18 inches (framed). Scarce. ($350.-Up)

An exceptional Ketubbah (60 years older than the one below) reading as follows:
On top hand lettered (as is everything) is depicted two birds of paradise, below that on the left are the Hebrew words for celebration—in the center "happiness"—to the right "it will still be heard in the city of Jehuda and the streets of Jehuda the sound of happiness."

Around the edges are inscribed "G-d should bless you and keep you. G-d should cause his faith to shine on you. May the lord lift up his contenance unto thee and give you peace. You should put my name on the children and I will bless them.

The actual marriage contract reads, "The fifth day of the week, the fifth day of the month of Nissan, year 5600. To the count of people here in the city of "Oufran", a place that sits on the water of the thin and gets its water from the wells. As the sweet bridegroom, the Kosher one, Joseph the son of Issac, said to his bride, a Kosher virgin Esther, daughter of Nashon, be my wife according to the laws of Moses in Israel and I with the help of G-d will work for you, honor you, and feed you and sustain you. I will dress you like all Jewish husbands should. To this the bride agreed and became his wife according to the laws of Moses in Israel. The money is "1,000 dfd" and the bridegroom added from his—an addition to this amount. He made everything financially as good as possible. The additional money was made in the form of a loan. This is how he said to us: "The safety of this amount and the additional money is my responsibility to my heirs after me, to the collector of my estate during and after my life time. A strong and suitable agreement."

A truly magnificent document.

428A 1889. Masonic Convention Token. 33mm. white metal. ($50.-Up)

Very scarce and desirable.

VERY RARE ROMAN CATHOLIC JERUSALEM PILGRIM'S CERTIFICATE IN LATIN

430 July 1, 1897. Certificate made out to Drum(?) Albert Winter, an American, and signed July 9, 1897 by Father Joseph C. Urban, appostolic representative in Jerusalem. Rare. ($300.-Up)

The certificate 390mm. by 260mm. has the coat of arms of the Jerusalem diocese at the top under which appears "IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN" in Latin and the text recounting that Winter had visited all the sacred places of the Christian faith, for which he was entitled to receive certain spiritual indulgences and benefits under the rules of the church.
The certificate was printed by the Franciscan Fathers at Jerusalem on paper watermarked "¼" (ont. fex) "M" (aximus), chief bridge builder a papal title, together with the coat of arms of Pope Leo XIII. The document has an embossed seal with the arms of the church custodians at the center and the words in Latin (translated) around the side "Seal of the (?) Mount Sion and Keepers of the Holy Places", at bottom right.
This item is Very Fine or so, being quarter folded both ways.

HISTORIC JUDAIC-PERSIAN KETUBBAH

431 1899. Judaic-Persian Ketubbah (the document embodying the obligations of the Bridegroom towards his bride, which in rabbinic law is a prerequisite of marriage. The document must bear the signatures of at least two witnesses, 21 inches by 14 inches (frame). (See Photo next page). ($350.-Up)

This most unusual and magnificent multicolored hand drawn document was done in 1899 and translates as follows "on Tuesday the month of Kislev in the year 5660 in the creation of the world under our calendar in the town of Kermanshah the place that is on the border the "running water" thin and the wells that give us water. The pleasant groom. The eagle, Nachshon—the son of Gershon said to the bride, a kosher virgin and a grown child (over 12½) Dilner, the daughter of Samuel, "Be my wife according to the Jewish Mosaic Laws." I will with G-d's help, work, cherish, and provide and come to you like all Jewish husbands. The bride agreed and became his wife according to Mosaic law, and this is the amount $4,084 Apflan (coins) and our groom wanted to add from his property an additional sum to the previous amount. A certain sum that is still in his possession (as a loan) and he placed everything in the safest manner as a loan. The responsibility of this dowry and the extra is on me and my heirs to be collected from my wealth during my life time and afterward. All things are agreed upon and in order, as all ketubbot are written and witnessed."

A truly historic relic and an opportunity for a collector to acquire a piece of Judaica that is lost art.

JABOTINSKY LETTER

444 1932. Letter of Vladimer Jabotinsky, President of the World Union of Zionist Revisionists (6, upper Bedford Place, Russel Square, London, near the British Museum, typewritten on British stationary from Paris, May 3, 1932 and addressed to Dr. J. Feldman, 668 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, N. Y. with autographed signature. ($150.-Up)

Written in Jabotinsky's usual vigorious style, this appeal for funds showed him at his best. His office budget of £6,000 had not been subscribed to in full and Jabotinsky made it clear that he did not expect his devoted workers to labor without adequate compensation. If Feldman and other well-to-do Jews weren't willing to provide adequate support, it was time to close the offices. For himself, Jabotinsky would not degrade himself to plead for money, the course was important and merited support, let those who supported the idea of a Jewish state produce the requisite funds or accept the result of their actions.

Three pages, one with heading, others are follow-up sheets, all quarter folded.

An interesting memento of one of the most important of the conservative Zionist leaders.

Jabotinsky (1880-1940) was founder of the Jewish Legion (World War I), powerful advocate of political action to create a Zionist state on both sides of the Jordan", compell the integration of the Jewish Legion into the Palestine Garriam and other steps calculated to create a Jewish majority state. He quarrelled with Chiam Weizmann and the Labor Party which advocated a less directly political approach with the result that Jabotinsky set up the World Union of Zionist-Revisionists in Paris in 1925, later breaking with the World Zionist Organization in 1935. Jabotinsky tried in vain to organize a mass movement of Jews out of the central European "dozen zone" in 1935, but his plans were frustrated by Jewish public opinion who feared a mass flight would provoke the trouble it was intended to prevent. Jabotinsky's last years were spent in opposing the Nazis and increasing the trickle of illegal immigration into the Palestine Mandate.

The first Series were struck on massive pure Silver, and placed in Five Splendid Volumes, which MR. THOMASON had the honor to present to His Majesty William the Fourth, at the Levee, when his Majesty was graciously pleased to accept them.

MEDAL.		OBSERVATIONS.
FIRST	ADAM GAVE NAMES TO THE BEASTS OF THE FIELD AND THE FOWLS OF THE AIR.	In the extraordinary amplitude of the subject of this Medal, the Artist has shown great merit; the happy, unaffected simplicity in the attitude and portraiture of Adam viewing the variety of animals, is truly chaste and sublime.
SECOND.....	EVE PRESENTING THE FORBIDDEN FRUIT IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN.	This Medal represents our first parents in the Garden of Eden, the modest and beautiful attitudes of the figures are exquisitely pourtrayed, and the doubt and hesitation of Adam in receiving the forbidden fruit, is evidently intelligible.
THIRD.....	THE EXPULSION OF ADAM AND EVE FROM PARADISE.	In this Medal the consciousness of guilt in both Adam and Eve, is clearly depicted; and the attitude of the Angel with a flaming sword, commanding them to depart from the Garden of Eden, well imagined.
FOURTH.....	CAIN SLAYING HIS BROTHER ABEL.	The Artist has in this Medal shewn much Anatomical Skill in the muscular arrangement and position of Cain.
FIFTH	ENOCH CARRIED UP INTO HEAVEN.	In this medal the rising of Enoch in the clouds to Heaven is sublimely supported, whilst the astonishment of his brethren on Earth around the Altar of Sacrifice, bespeaks rapturous surprise.
SIXTH	NOAH's ARK FLOATING UPON THE WATERS.	This Medal exhibits great skill in the Water, and in the perspective of the distant Hills.
SEVENTH	NOAH BUILDETH AN ALTAR, AND OFFERETH A SACRIFICE.	This Medal illustrates in the most elevated Style of the Art, the Attitudes of Piety and Virtue in Noah and his whole family returning thanks to God for their deliverance from the dreadful effects of the Deluge.
EIGHTH.....	THE BUILDING OF THE TOWER OF BABEL.	This Medal gives an excellent representation of the Building.
NINTH.....	LOT PARTING FROM ABRAHAM TO DWELL IN THE PLAINS OF JORDAN.	The interesting effect of the appearance of conversation between Abraham and Lot, is must naturally enforced in this medal, and displays much skill.
TENTH	LOT AND HIS TWO DAUGHTERS ON THEIR JOURNEY FROM SODOM TO ZOAR.	This Medal is in a most masterly Style of the Art, showing the great caution and anxiety in Lot to retire with his two daughters in safety.
ELEVENTH	ABRAHAM OFFERING HIS SON ISAAC FOR A SACRIFICE.	This Medal possesses wonderful merit in pourtraying the agitated devotion of Abraham to the command of God, in his preparation to sacrifice his only Child.
TWELFTH	REBEKAH DRAWING WATER FOR ABRAHAM's CAMELS.	The Grouping of Rebekah and her companions at the Well, drawing water for Abraham's Servant and Camels is a chef-d'œuvre of the Art.
THIRTEENTH	ABRAHAM BURIED IN THE CAVE OF MACPHELAH BY HIS SONS.	The execution of this Medal is a proud effort of skill in the Numismatic Art; the position of Isaac and Ishmael in their exertions to carry the dead body of their Father Abraham, is exquisitely managed.
FOURTEENTH.	ISAAC BLESSING JACOB INSTEAD OF ESAU.	In this Medal the anxious cunning of Rebekah to obtain Isaac's blessing for her favourite son Jacob instead of Esau her first born, is well imagined.
FIFTEENTH	RECONCILIATION BETWEEN JACOB AND HIS BROTHER ESAU.	An effect of reconciliation is faithfully represented in the management of this Medal.
SIXTEENTH	JOSEPH's BRETHREN SELLING HIM TO THE ISHMAELITE MERCHANTS.	This Medal contains a group of figures, and is altogether in the best keeping; the bargain struck between Joseph's brethren and the Ishmaelite Merchants, is so happily pourtrayed, as almost to convey the spirit of the conversation.
SEVENTEENTH....	THE INTERPRETATION OF KING PHAROAH's TWO DREAMS BY JOSEPH.	This Medal introduces much Majesty in the attitude of King Pharoah seated upon his throne, surrounded by his Ministers, attentively hearing Joseph's interpretation of his two dreams.
EIGHTEENTH	JOSEPH MAKETH HIMSELF KNOWN TO HIS BRETHREN.	This Medal is quite scenic in its illustration, and consists of ten figures, each in earnest attention to the disclosure made to them by their brother Joseph.
NINETEENTH.....	JACOB ON HIS DEATHBED CALLING TOGETHER HIS SONS AND BLESSING THEM.	This Medal exhibits a rich and powerful conception of the Art, the twelve Sons of Jacob are reverentially receiving his blessing and are in various attitudes of attention.
TWENTIETH	MOSES DISCOVERED AND PRESERVED BY THE DAUGHTER OF KING PHAROAH.	This Medal is very highly finished, the compassionate look of Pharoah's daughter upon the child Moses, and the beautiful drapery of the dresses of herself and attendants, is exquisitely embodied.
TWENTY-FIRST....	THE ROD OF MOSES MIRACULOUSLY CHANGED INTO A SERPENT.	The burning bush is faithfully delineated in this Medal, and also the astonishment of Moses in witnessing his Rod miraculously changed into a Serpent.
TWENTY-SECOND..	THE FIRST BORN SLAIN THROUGHOUT THE LAND OF EGYPT.	This Medal of the Passover is truly imposing; the sublime yet awful attitude of the destroying Angel, and the management of the numerous bodies slain, shows extraordinary merit.
TWENTY-THIRD ...	PHAROAH AND HIS HOST DROWNED IN THE RED SEA.	It was thought impracticable to make this the subject of a Medal, from the supposed want of the effect of light and shade, and the necessity of the great confusion essential in the allegory; the Artist has, however, completely overcome all these difficulties, and has produced, of its class, one of the finest Medals extant: literally displaying, "The Horse and his Rider thrown into the Sea."

Gold Chile 100 Pesos
ONLY 3000
MINTED
CHILE 1976
Commemorative Issue to Celebrate the Third Anniversary of The Sept. 11, 1973 Revolution
On September 11, 1976, the Central Bank of Chile issued a series of coins commemorating the third anniversary of the Chilean revolution. The primary coin of the series is a gold 100 Pesos coin which depicts an allegorical figure of the Republic represented by a winged female with outstretched arms on the obverse with the date 1973-1976 and the inscription "3er. Aniversario De La Liberacion De Chile". On the reverse the standard coat of arms of Chile is shown together with the denomination, "100 Pesos, 1976" and the words "Republica De Chile".
The total mintage of this coin is limited to 3,000 pieces – 2,900 in Uncirculated and 100 in Proof. MANFRA, TORDELLA & BROOKES, internationally known foreign exchange and gold and coin dealers, has been awarded the exclusive world-wide distributorship of the Uncirculated specimens by the Central Bank of Chile.
In addition to the 100 Pesos gold coin, two coins were minted in cupro-nickel alloy for daily circulation: the 1976 10 Pesos and the 1976 5 Pesos.
These coins show the same allegorical figure of the winged female, the only difference being the addition of broken chains around her wrists.
In order to emphasize the significance of this issue, MANFRA, TORDELLA & BROOKES has decided to sell the 100 Pesos commemorative gold coin together with the two cupro-nickel coins as an Uncirculated set. Because of the extremely low mintage of the 100 Pesos gold coin and in order to afford as many individuals as possible the opportunity to acquire this most desirable issue, the offer is limited to one set per collector at U.S. $160.00 per set plus shipping costs and any applicable taxes.
These coins were struck at the Santiago Mint which, needless to say, is one of the traditional South American mints founded by the Spaniards in 1743 during colonial times. Some slight abrasion marks may be found on most of the coins due to bagging procedures at the time of minting, but in no way diminishes the desirability of this very limited and significant issue.
